What is DipDog?

DipDog is probably the best comebackstory in a long time. Dev team left and emptied their wallets and failed a rug miserably. We as a community decided to relight the fire, and restock the locked LP. You will get to know a lot more in our Community Channels. Transparency will always be the word to describe DipDog.

DipDog's Path

DipDog was a token that was once abandoned by its owners. However, the community was strong and worked hard in the back alleys and woods of the neighborhood to ensure its survival. They made it rug proof, and brought it back to life. As a pack we are working to create the best and first Revenge-Token. This brand new concept is one in which we unite every dog whose owners have dipped, and left them alone, and show them how to properly eat the dip and grow their strength through numbers. In this new community no dog is left behind.

We will actively work to seek out members of communities in which project development has ceased or, who's owners have abandoned them. As a community based token we know that the hard work and determination of its members ultimately increases the valuation of their holdings. We welcome those who have been cast aside into our pack to achieve our vision of a true community empowered token.

The Trail Ahead

The trail ahead is only limited by our imagination. Going forward we aim to establish our brand through extensive marketing, and build a proper ecosystem to help save all the dipped dogs. There will be NFT airdrops for DipDog Diamond Handers. Further down the line, we would like to establish a proper NFT marketplace. Our Merch store to fund more marketing is under development. We are determined to leave no dog in the dip, this includes real dogs. We therefore are adopting supporter dogs all around the world to help fund their most basic needs.

Conclusion

Our community is the true owner of DipDog, and the team is made up of a group of volunteers scattered throughout the world. If you would like to join us please say hello in our telegram channels. We welcome you with a nice taco to enjoy together with the dip we so much enjoy to eat.
